BIO

Current, detailed and enthusiastic about graphic design, Mark Hennick lives and breathes corporate identity.

Throughout the last few decades, Mark has teamed with various clients to develop effective visual business tools.

Using a strong sense of typography and color theory, Mark interprets your directions and gives you design choices that will “wow” you. His goal is to give you the presence you want and to project the message you need.

“I specialize in really good logo design. I also develop graphic style guides, cool tools to promote sales, and create exceptional websites.”

— Mark Hennick

Prior to establishing his design shop, Mark was a Senior Art Director at a local advertising agency. He has an associates degree in commercial art. And has received various awards for graphic design excellence.

Mark lives in the River Market area of Kansas City. He enjoys pastel drawing, fine art galleries, museums, meditation, traveling, remote control airplanes and video games.
